Margaret,
Well, class + English
class are supreme BOLT...
I certainly have enjoyed having you in my classes. I know a lot to thank you for helping so greatly on fr. Sr. I know that were some I could always count on well, have a nice summer and stay away from the WORSES + there are a lot out looking for a good looking girl like you.

Margaret,
I would say that I enjoyed being in all the classes that I was with you this year, but I really hated English class.
I didn't hate you, I hated the class. (I know)
I don't make much sense.
Anyway, have fun
this summer and good luck next year as a senior.

Dick Poo

margaret,
Best wishes for your senior year.

Lahn

Be good.

~~Sorry, Cliff~~

Margrett
(Sorry about the scratch)

but I really did enjoy doing it. It's been a pleasure talking and getting rich home this year. I hope to do the same this summer

I didn't get a chance to see you this year except in French & English class, but maybe we'll have more classes together next year as SENIORS? Be good this summer and I'll see you around.

Erin

margaret,
(sorry about the scratch) I have known you longer and have been closer to you than anyone else at FHS. I am really going to miss you next year. Best of luck at N.C. state and as a senior (and it is the last year.)

Ellen

Margaret,

It has been a real pleasure getting to know you better this year. Best of luck as a Senior next year.

Susie Biedenbender

Margaret,
It was nice having you in French with me, and especially in Youth Group we really gave a few people a hard time -
Mango

Margaret,
Blackburn was really great wasn't it? Brad, Sterling, Dietrich, you name it they had it. Maybe we should have played a little longer! (Vishel could have remembered strip poker and all that jewelry. See ya this summer. You'll be a Senior! -
Butter

Margaret,
Best of luck to you in the future. Be good and have fun; it's hard to do both but try anyway. Just don't do anything I wouldn't do. See ya next year as a tough senior!

Margaret

It's always reassuring to have you in my math classes 'cause I know that at least you will always have an answer.
Aside from that, I think that you are a sweet girl with lots of potential Best of luck next year and in the future
Chris

Margaret,
Thanks for all the times
you've given me a ride.
They were quite a few,

Perhaps

it means

Stepping up, or

Stepping down,

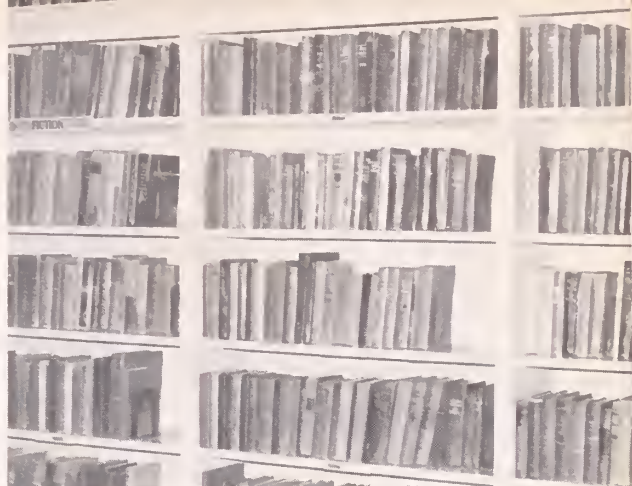

The direction is not important.

What is important is that I find myself in line,

Eye to eye with the person, Margaret,
 Thanks for all those rides not as a pose, home. You'll be a big senior as condescension, ^{next} year and will get out of that lovely high or as pretense, school. Be good this summer.

Love,
 Mary K.

But that in a quiet moment of revelation

I know that I am him and he is me and there is no difference between us to God.

Fine Arts . . .

*. . . development of technique.
. . . expansion of a young mind.
. . . striving for perfection.
. . . being in touch with the Old Masters.*

Art is an outlet for the creative mind.

The solo in chorus helps develop self-confidence.

Ensemble work disciplines the musician and provides a high sense of fulfillment.

The carefree posture of the bass section belies the fact that they are a hard-working group.

Painting allows graphic expression of one's innermost feelings.

Languages . . .

Reports are a basic part of English class.

Taking a test in a foreign language is quite different from taking one in English.

Projects such as a map of Europe help Latin students carry Caesar's campaigns beyond their books.

*. . . thrilled with using our language correctly.
. . . engrossed with the beauty of English.
. . . enflamed with the illusions of French.
. . . enthralled with the study of the exploits of Julius Caesar.*

Scholars planning to go to France this summer examine a map of the country.

Using the language lab is a treat to French students, besides helping them to master a second language.

Mathematics . . .

. . . struggling with proofs, equalities, and axioms.

. . . the agony of a wrong answer; the ecstasy of triumph of man over math.

The math cube is useful in illustrating certain geometric laws.

In order to clarify polar sets, the graph board is often used by Mrs. Brown.

Individualized instruction proves quite helpful in algebra.

The transparency projector provides a more complete picture of the proofs.

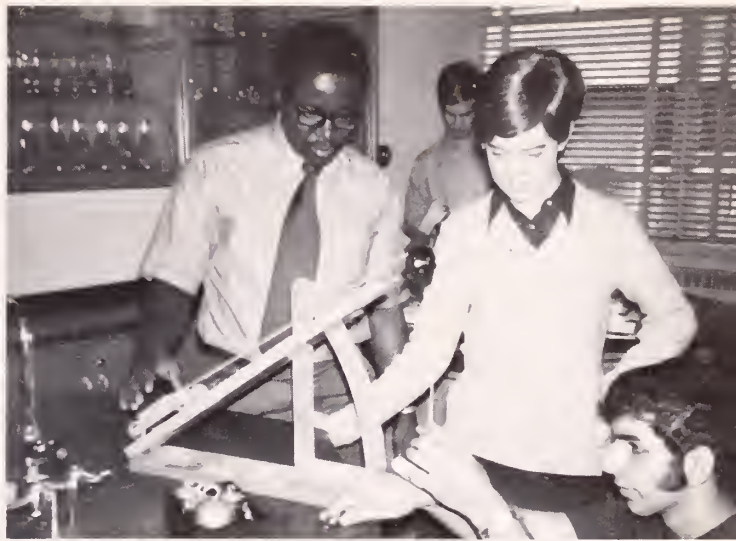

Allowing the student to demonstrate his own problem insures his understanding.

Science . . .

An eclipse allows students to have a first-hand look at what they have learned in science classes.

Working with simple machines is a basic part of physics.

. . . absorbing the constant laws of that wonderful thing, Nature.

. . . unearthing the amazing phenomena of this changing world.

. . . seeking the discovery of new things.

A student's first dissection is quite a traumatic experience.

Future scientists examine squirming specimens under the bioscope.

History . . .

- . . . development of mankind*
- . . . youth coping with the problems of today.*
- . . . seeing and experiencing the truth.*

The expanding universe is a constant source of amazement.

Projects, such as this guillotine, enliven the class.

Visual aids, such as maps, contribute to the understanding of certain historical facts.

Morning programs during Black History Week accentuated Negro accomplishments.

Physical Education . . .

Exercising on the uneven parallel bars develops poise and grace of movement.

Push-ups is one of the exercises used to limber up the class each day.

Student demonstrators help clarify gymnastic techniques. Here, Maria Jones rotates through two steps in the backward somersault.

The Russian Toe-Touch requires much agility and coordination.

*. . . fun with a purpose.
. . . developing a sound body.
. . . good sportsmanship
plus good health habits.*

Vocation and Business . . .

Home Ec. can be useful to both boys and girls.

D.E. allows students a chance to go to school a half-day and work in the community the other half.

In Industrial Arts students build things, learning a skill that can result in either a satisfying job or hobby.

Mechanical drawing is used for drafting.

Shorthand isn't meant to be a foreign language, but it sometimes seems to be.

*... fascinating is the world of the carpenter.
... the wonder of your own creations.
... learning to make headway.*

Typing not only offers students preparation for a career, but also a skill that can be useful almost anywhere.

All phases of the business world are encountered in the general business course.

The teaching of proper techniques cultivates good shop habits.

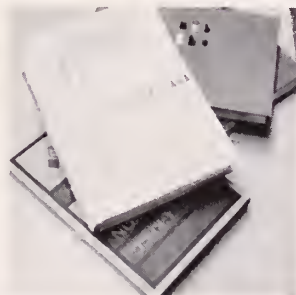

A creative hand in the kitchen produces delectable jams and jellies.

Conditioning practices prepare the typist for his day's work.

Sewing is a basic skill taught in Home Ec.

The bookkeeping student makes use of a variety of texts.

... encountering the realm of words and symbols.
... seething with facts and figures.

Clubs

The clubs of Franklin High School play a major role in the life of the students. They are second only in time and ability requirements to subject matter. Who can count the hours spent in research on a debate topic, or shopping by FHA members for food? Earning money to finance projects such as convention trips by Beta Club members, or securing the subsidy needed to finance the publications of the newspaper and annual staffs demands both endurance and devotion of the students. Yet, school-affiliated clubs offer a large variety of activities, and appeal to many interests. Guest speakers, visits to downtown merchants, a satisfying evening of swimming at the YMCA, preparation and participation in the Model General Assembly have been only a few of the projects planned and executed this year.

Through involvement with teachers, organizations, and leaders in the community, clubs extend their influence in many ways.

Roughly, clubs may be divided into three major areas. HONORARY clubs are clubs which seek to show recognition in a particular area. Usually a set grade average is required for admission, along with desirable character traits such as leadership, reliability and integrity. Sometimes, successful participation in sports or publications, or membership in a particular class is a prerequisite for admittance. Often, members of honorary clubs combine honor with service. Beta Club members offer tutoring to needy students while Quill and Scroll publishes Literary Sallies, an anthology of outstanding poems and prose items written by FHS students. Varsity Club members man a concession stand at all home basketball games.

Offering chances of a television was one money-making project used by the clubs this year.

A Beta Club member illustrates a requirement for membership in her club.

Two Quill and Scroll members study Literary Sallies for ideas for this year's issue.

Through SERVICE clubs, FHS students develop a unity of purpose which sublimates the ego and commits them to active membership in the community. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y focus interest on Christian living as well as fostering clean habits and good manners. The Library Club learns respect for thought as they catalog and repair books. The Pep Club knows well what a united effort can do to help attain a desired goal. Each club member by practicing selflessness accelerates the time he can sincerely say, "I know that I am him, and he is me."

The aides in the library help Miss Fowler with her monumental task.

A hat-and-coat check is a service and money-making project offered by the Hi-Y.

Miss Eubank discusses the district convention with some of the Tri-Hi-Y members.

The speaker at the district convention gives the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs some good ideas.

Making posters is one of the services the Pep Club renders.

Students show that they support the Broncos by autographing a Pep Club sign.

ACADEMIC clubs are a logical outgrowth of the classes offered at FHS. They may include the Future Business Leaders of America, which strives to give the student a taste of the future for which he is preparing; the Deca Club, which places the student in a downtown job position through Distributive Education; or the Debate Club which fosters logical thought and research. Drama Club gives the student a chance to express himself in a different way. FTA and FHA inspire students to assume major responsibilities.

The FBLA goes on field trips to learn how businesses throughout the community work.

Dennis Blythe shows off the trophy he won through Deca Club competition in District II.

The Debate Club teaches its members extemporaneous speaking.

FHA members carry what they have learned in Home Ec. to their meetings.

Besides working with others, the members of the annual staff often resort to individual work in order to meet deadlines.

The annual staff is composed of students who perform various jobs such as layout designing and typing.

Publications

The selling of yearbooks requires much work on the part of the business staff.

Those of the Bronco Bulletin staff take pride in selling their completed newspaper.

Work on the Bronco Bulletin involves the preparing and handing in of articles.

These students seem to be admiring the window decoration on the typing room window.

A Christmas tree, the center of attraction, was decorated by members of the SCA.

Many students put time and hard work into the decorations that brought Christmas cheer to the halls of FHS.

Penny gives mental support to Carolyn, as she presents her speech to the students and teachers.

Cheryl awakened the audience with her speech that rhymed line by line.

The Student Cooperative Association is our way of bridging the gap between teacher and student body with various opportunities to serve the community through united effort. Such examples are the Tom Dooley Foundation, the Tony Briley Fund, and the Jay-Cee-sponsored Operation Merry Christmas. The students through the SCA magazine drive provide the community with a variety of periodicals. When Christmas rolls around, the SCA boosts spirit with a Christmas tree and window decorations. A dress code committee made recommendations this year which were approved by the student body. Through its continued efforts, the SCA has done much to mold the students and faculty into a more closely cooperating unit.

Angelee pleads for the support of the student body during SCA elections.

Mr. Davis and Candy are enlightened by the rapid-fire speech of Katie Whitley.

Office Staff

Mr. Galloway takes the pause that refreshes.

Mr. Davis stays busy solving the problems of a school system.

Mrs. Bass and Mrs. Scott provide everyone with excellent help in the office.

Mrs. Hundley and Mrs. Davis confer over the typing of school papers.

Mrs. Holoman, one of the guidance counselors, finds time for humor during her busy schedule.

Are the absentees really that astounding, Mrs. Rawls?

Custodial and Cafeteria Staffs

Busy! Busy! Busy!

Our custodial staff puts in many hours of hard work to keep our school beautiful.

Is this a form of pampering the students?

Floors are kept neat and clean.

Chef at work!

George is involved in making his work schedule.

This is our cafeteria staff. They wash our dishes and cook our food.

Operation in

Parent-teacher conferences help both the students and the parents understand each other.

The Varsity Club provides us with refreshments at our exciting basketball games.

The junior class washes cars for the citizens of Franklin.

The P.T.A. brings parents and teachers closer together.

At night, our school becomes a workshop for adults willing to learn.

the Community

Mrs. Hundley helps students solve both personal and scholastic problems.

Interested students take part . . . When Thanksgiving arrived this year, various clubs at F.H.S. collected food for the needy in our city. During Yuletide, students gave gifts to less fortunate families. Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y week featured KOPE — Klean Our Polluted Environment. Through efforts such as these, students show the Establishment that they care about the future of the world.

Coach Sandidge explains about our football team at the football banquet, and tells a few jokes on the side.

The guidance office provides the students with information about many different colleges.

DEDICATION

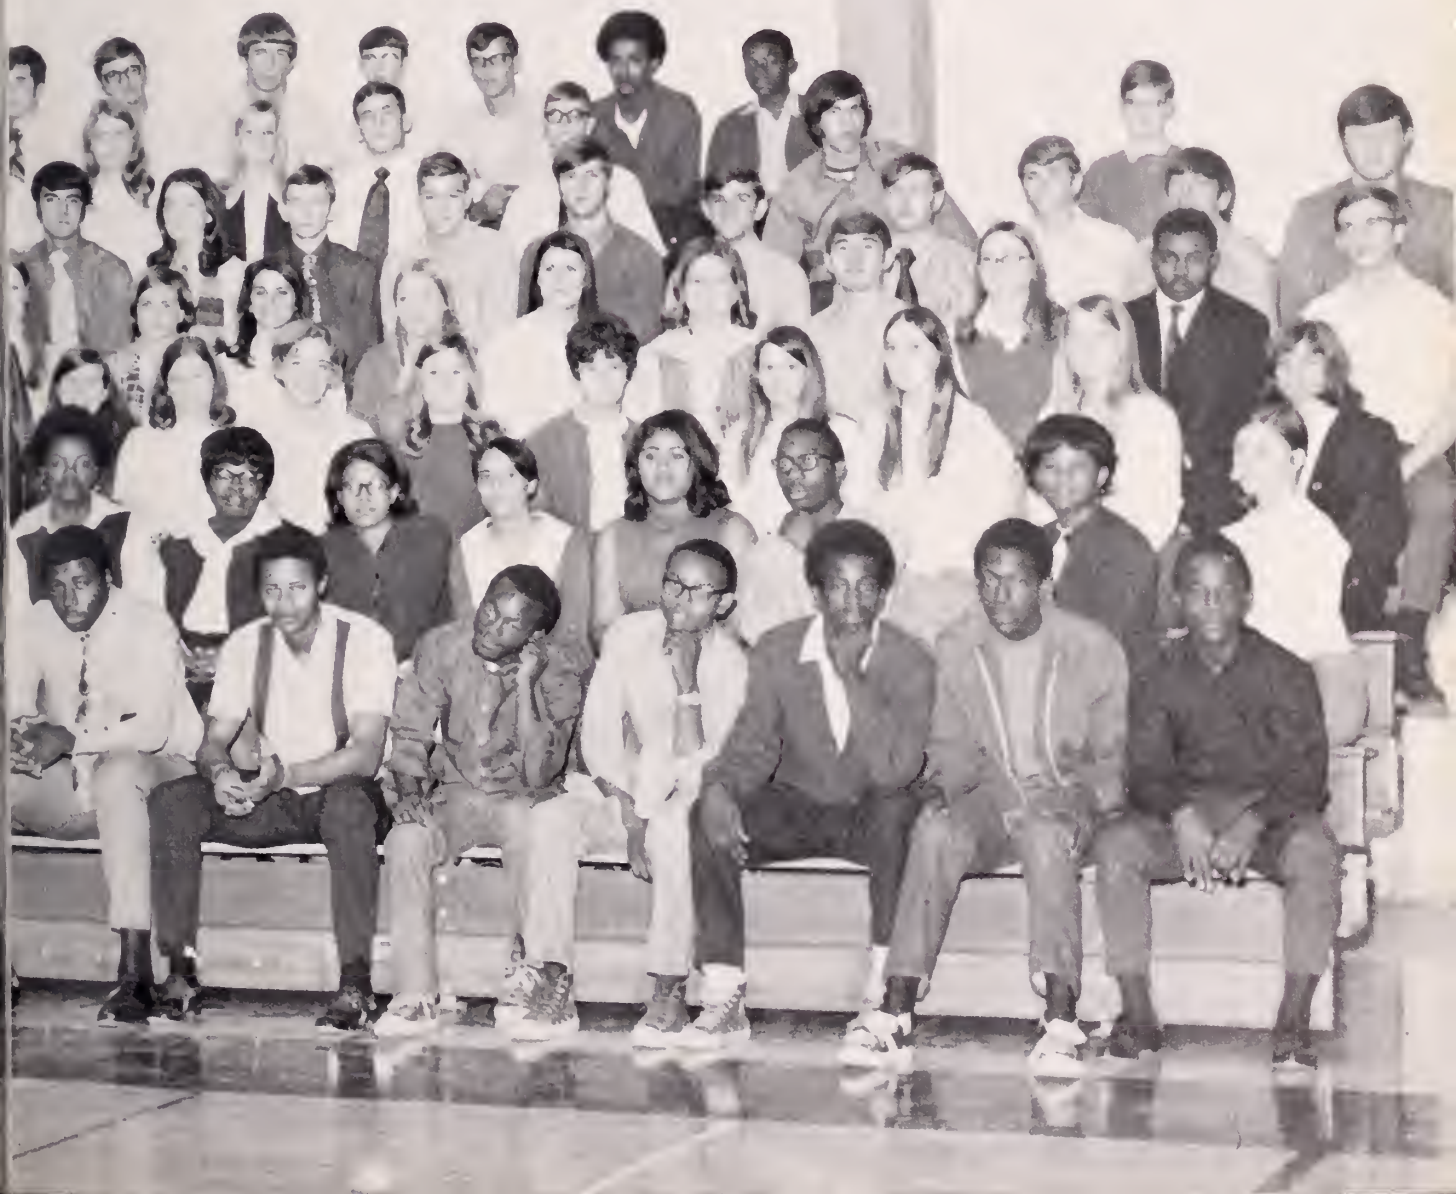

Because of his willingness to help any student, although his schedule is crowded;
Because of his capable leadership of the Franklin High School band this year and of both the band and the chorus during the years past;
Because of his devotion of time in planning football shows, in performing band and chorus concerts, in producing chorus plays, and in encouraging the band to achieve top-ranking positions in competition; and Because of his ingenuity in talents which have helped to spread the fame of Franklin High School,
We dedicate the 1971 LOG to

EDWIN M. BARTON

Margaret,
 I have enjoyed for those five-minute writings.

 I hate them... I'd rather sign awards as a "service" I sure have. Best of luck next year and always to a really sweet soul: Have a nice summer!

 and Be Good!

Senior Class

1971

It was the best of times;
 We were seniors!
 It was the worst of times;
 We hit Government class!
 It was the age of wisdom;
 We learned to build a school.
 It was the age of foolishness;
 We procrastinated.
 It was the age of industry;
 We wrote research themes.
 It was the age of indolence;
 We slept in class.
 It was the age of triumph;
 We were district champs!
 It was the age of defeat;
 We lost at Lawrenceville.
 It was the age of receiving;
 College scholarships!
 It was the age of giving;
 The Tony Briley Fund.
 It was the epoch of belief;
 We were going to graduate.
 It was the epoch of incredulity;
 Our grades!
 It was the season of light;
 Watching Washington's sunrise.
 It was the season of darkness;
 Coming home.
 It was the spring of hope;
 Chance of no final exams.
 It was the winter of despair;
 We took them!
 We had everything before us;
 Life!
 We had nothing before us;
 The Unknown.
 We were all going . . .

Outstanding Seniors Class of 1971

Twenty students were chosen by the entire faculty on the basis of leadership, service, and character. Later, their classmates chose ten of the twenty whom they felt made unselfish contributions throughout their years at F.H.S., ten seniors who merit special recognition and portray the true spirit of Franklin High School.

Each of them has achieved such a high degree of honor and such a bounty of respect that he is recognized as a leader. Each of them, in his classwork, has shown excellence as a student. Each of them, by participating in clubs, activities, church groups, and sports, is noted by his service to school and community. Each of them, in his dealings with teachers, advisors and friends upholds a high personal character. Because their devotion distinguishes these young men and women, the Annual Staff presents the OUTSTANDING SENIORS OF 1971.

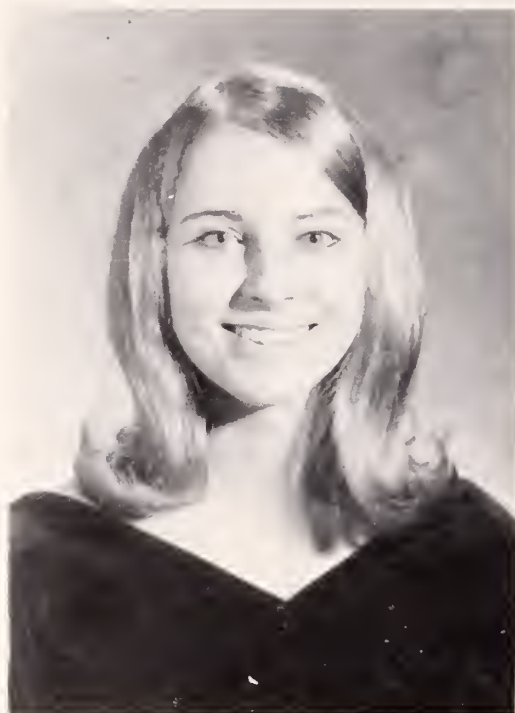

CANDY BEAMAN

Juniors

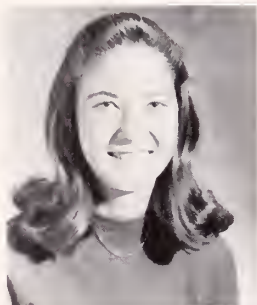

The Junior year is one of the more exciting years of high school. The excitement begins in September with the measurement for class rings. (The decisions that have to be made! — Should the ring be white or yellow gold? Which stone looks best? — Cut or uncut?) and pales only at deadline time for research themes. But the year brightens again when first semester examinations are finished. It is then that work on the Junior-Senior Prom begins in earnest. The theme, of course, is a deep, dark secret. Much money is needed for this undertaking, and besides the usual stationery sales, bake sales were held this year. But it is all worth it to present the "best prom ever." And, besides, next year, this class will be the guests!

The Sophomore class has been kept busy this year with school projects as well as extra-curricular ones. Chemistry class has overwhelmed many members with notes, equations, and formulas. The magic year to receive driver's licenses has finally arrived. Although behind-the-wheel instruction is now a state requirement, what a relief it is to know that this marks the last year of required physical education!

Satisfaction and vicarious pleasure were ours as several members helped the girls' basketball team to become both regular season and tournament champions of the Peanut District.

The regrettable injury of one of the class members in an accident helped create a stronger sense of unity and purpose, as the whole class strove to raise money for the Tony Briley Benefit Fund.

Freshmen

Ninth grade representatives to the Hayden Junior High School SCA are Tina Stephenson, Amy DeLoatch and Ann Council. (Not pictured: Lyn Kyle.)

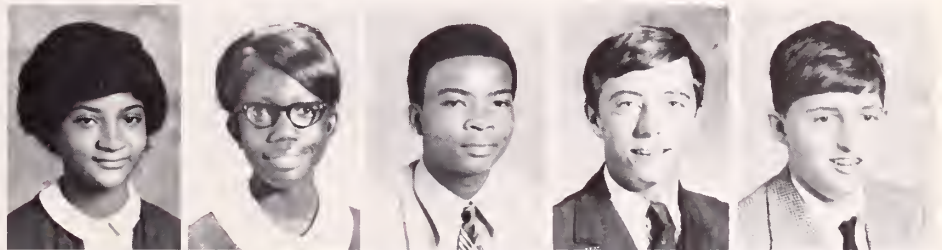

Ninth grade representatives to the Franklin High School SCA are Kira Hundley, Susan Daughtrey (seated), and Nancy Pixley and John Hagan (standing).

Consolidation of the Franklin High School and Hayden High School Systems brought unique problems to the ninth grade class this year. Due to space limitations in both schools, half of the freshmen were sent to Hayden Junior High for their morning classes, while the other half attended Franklin High. At noon, amid confusion, hurry, and bustle, the students boarded buses at their respective schools for a trek across town to finish their day at the other school. Thus, the ninth graders reaped the educational advantages of two sets of teachers and two schools. To facilitate the government of the class in each school, representatives to both SCA's were elected.

Other problems encountered include: transition from elementary school intimacy to high school anonymity; choice of curricula oriented toward individual careers, whether academic, or vocational; and social identification through extra-curricular activities.

Pine Bowl 1970

Doris's smile reflects her feelings of honor and pride as the crown is placed upon her head.

Doris Candie proudly reigned as Franklin's 16th Annual Pine Bowl Queen. Her attendant from Franklin High School was Candy Beaman. Her other attendant was Hester Holland from Forest Glen High School.

During her high school years, Doris has been a member of the school chorus and received a certificate for her outstanding qualities of voice. She lettered in basketball and was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen of 1970.

Candy Beaman has had a number of honors bestowed upon her during her previous years at F.H.S. She was elected SCA representative and was chosen as co-captain of the Varsity football and basketball cheering squads. She has been a member of the Annual Staff, Tri-Hi-Y, Varsity Club, Pep Club, Quill and Scroll, Beta Club, Drama Club, and Chorus.

The Pine Bowl Queen and her attendant were chosen by the Student Co-operative Association of our school this year. The football game was played September 25, and was sponsored by the Franklin Lion's Club. The proceeds are contributed to aid the blind.

Obviously, Candy is the perfect attendant for the Pine Bowl Queen.

The 1970 Bronco Football Banquet was sponsored by the Franklin Jaycees on January 28, 1971. Rick Forzano, coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, was the guest speaker. The outstanding players for the 1970 Broncos were presented their trophies. James Beale was voted the most valuable player by his teammates.

Alton Lane was selected as the outstanding back, and Glen Garland was selected as the outstanding lineman. Glen Garland was also presented the Bronco Achievement Award by Dr. W. O. Ward. All proceeds from the banquet were donated to the Tony Briley Benefit Fund.

Rick Forzano, coach of the U.S. Naval Academy, was the guest speaker.

The varsity football cheerleaders were there to give the team support and spirit.

SCA Elections

The candidates and their campaign managers practice their speeches.

With the combining of Hayden High School and Franklin High School came also the combining of the leaders from each school. In early fall five officers — Danny Peak, Angelee Godbold, Cheryl Riddick, Wendell Pixley, and Connie Lankford — were elected to lead the new Franklin High School.

Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Convention

The candidates for office were (left to right) Wendell Pixley, Peter Pearson, Danny Peak, Connie Lankford, Larry Hedgepeth, and Rob Comet.

On November 21, 1970, some of the Franklin Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y members attended the Eastern District Hi-Y Conference at Mechanicsville, Virginia. Julie Mann, district president, presided; Danny Peak, district vice-president, presided over the business meeting. After elections were held for district officers and Model General Assembly officers, the Reverend Zane G. Ross spoke on the theme "Something to Believe in . . ." Finally the new officers were installed, and the conference adjourned.

The Bronco Bulletin serves as one of the media for keeping the students and the community informed about school activities-classes, clubs, sports, and a bit of humor and philosophy. Students enjoy reading about themselves and seeing their writings in print.

By working on the school newspaper, one learns about the many facets of creating a literary work. Deadlines and proofreading and layouts are learned. Ads must be collected by the business staff in order to finance the paper.

Members of the editorial staff have an opportunity to improve their writing skills and develop their originality; business staff members, to put into use business skills and practices.

THE LOG has as one of its goals the faithful recording of the events of the year through pictures and copy. Published by a representative section of the student body, it teaches economics, cooperation, writing, leadership, and effective use of leisure time. The annual staff is composed of the business and editorial staffs. The business staff finances the annual through money-raising projects. These projects have been selling subscriptions to the annual to students, selling advertisements to merchants, and sponsoring a car wash. The editorial staff composes the annual by compiling all the information pertaining to the scholastic year in a pleasing format.

These members of the business staff don't seem to mind manning the concession stand.

Mary Kaye Rabil fulfills one of her tasks as a business staff member by collecting payments for subscriptions to the annual.

Reorganization due to school consolidation did little to slow the activities of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y this year. Among Hi-Y projects were attendance at a leadership conference at Massenet Springs, hosting a district officer's workshop, manning a hat-check station at home basketball games and selling light bulbs to raise money. Proceeds from these projects are used to finance local and world service projects.

Mickey Rabil, Chaplain; Larry Hedgepeth, Vice-President; Wendell Pixley (seated), President; David Rabil, Reporter; Bob Lankford, Secretary; Whit Day, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Recognition in the form of the Ace Award was granted to the club for their outstanding accomplishments.

The distaff version of Hi-Y was also very active this year. The Tri-Hi-Y prepared a Thanksgiving Basket for a needy family, bought gifts for underprivileged children at Christmas in lieu of gifts for each other, addressed envelopes for Tuberculosis Seals for the area, made hospital tray favors, and completed many other worthwhile projects.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is an honorary society of Junior and Senior students who maintain an average of 90 or above, and who exhibit certain attributes of desirable nature, such as worthiness of character and honor. Under the supervision of Mrs. Beale, the Beta Club raffled tickets for a television as a major fund-raising project. The money earned helped to offset the expenses of the members who attended the Annual Beta Club Convention.

The purpose of the Debate Club is to provide all interested students with experience in one phase of forensics. In December, the Debate Club from Windsor High School gave us a demonstration debate. The Debate Club participated in various workshops as well as in exchange debates with other neighboring schools. The highlight of the year and the reward for the hours of research was our participation in the district tournament in the spring.

Sponsor

The Franklin Chapter of the Future Teachers of America made its debut this year on October 26 with the public installation of its members.

Future Teachers of America strives to give its members insights into the almost limitless aspects of the teaching profession as a career through observation, experience, and idea-exchange at state conventions. The "flaming torch" and the simple black and white dress of the members symbolize the eagerness to learn, the burning desire to help others, and the sincerity each one strives to illustrate.

This year the state and national theme is "Touch Humanity-Teach." The local chapter has related this theme to the student body through newspaper publications and creative school displays.

Library Club

Miss Fowler
Sponsor

The Library Club, under the supervision of Miss Fowler, offers interested students the opportunity to learn the techniques in maintaining a library. Girls and boys are carefully trained to become skilled library aides and projectionists. By putting up attractive bulletin boards, helping the librarian at the circulation desk, and by instilling an interest in reading to the students, the aides create a studious atmosphere.

This year the Library Club has had many projects. Selling candy was their major money-making project. Repairing old books took much time and labor. Visits to the Walter Cecil Rawls Library and the Portsmouth Library made the students fully recognize the complexity of a library. With the increase in members, the Library Club will continue to serve the students of Franklin High School.

F.B.L.A.

Centering around the world of business, the Future Business Leaders of America trains its members to become economic leaders. The Franklin Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America is guided throughout the year by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harris. This club sponsors financial and promotional activities and each morning the club undertakes the important task of opening and operating the Student Supply Room. During the year the F. B. L. A. toured different businesses, sold candles as money-making project, collected food for a needy family at Thanksgiving, and attended regional and state conventions. At these conventions the F. B. L. A. participated in different contests. The Future Business Leaders of America Club serves as a guide for all seeking advice on some phase of business.

Tri-Hi-Y Celebrates Anniversary

The Franklin High School Tri-Hi-Y celebrated its twentieth anniversary on April 21, 1971. Organized in 1951, the chapter has continually been of service to school and community. To commemorate the event, a banquet was held in the cafeteria of Franklin High School. Fifteen of the charter members attended, and a number of past presidents were present.

Officers for the coming year were installed, and Reverend Potter, ministerial advisor to the chapter, provided spiritual inspiration. In addition to a tray, Miss Eubank received a YMCA plaque for her service to youth.

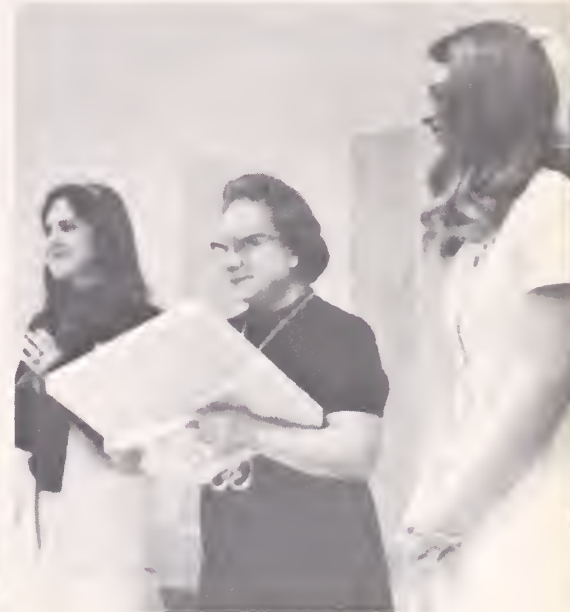

At the end of the banquet a cake was served which symbolized the two decades of selfless work by the Tri-Hi-Y.

The 20th anniversary banquet drew a large crowd of Tri-Hi-Y members and their mothers.

Carolyn Bondurant, newly elected President of the Tri-Hi-Y, is presented with a gavel from former President Penny Beale.

Miss Eubank is presented with a beautiful silver tray from the members of the Tri-Hi-Y.

"Peace", a local folk group, provides the entertainment.

Rev. Potter gives an inspiring talk and devotions to the crowd.

Brian and Teresa appear to be enjoying the enchantment of Camelot.

The music of the "Echoes of Soul" resounding from the castle walls provides the perfect setting for Camelot.

All seem to fully enjoy themselves. The music is good, the decorations, beautiful . . . David and Ginny have even found something funny to laugh about.

The Lord and Lady of Camelot with their steed add a touch of royalty to the surroundings.

Joey seems to have found a girlfriend.

The dance floor was crowded with lots of dancers.

The wishing well is a fitting place for Nell and Ann to relax between dances.

The teachers who chaperone can not resist doing a few of their own steps.

First Came The Fun Of Class Night

Excited seniors crowd the halls with eager anticipation of the night ahead.

Members of the class of '71 consult a crystal ball for class prophecy.

Laugh-In skits, full of typical corny jokes, are presented to a packed house.

The Laugh-In skits are complete with "the party" and even the hilarious characters.

Gifts are presented to each graduating senior — some funny, some serious.

Then The Solemnity Of Baccalaureate

There is a glint of happiness in the senior crowd.

A tense throng awaits its orders to line up.

With the majority smiling, and some shedding tears, the procession starts.

The chorus performs, adding its final note, "The Lord's Prayer."

Participants in the service are Rev. Charles Smith and Rev. E. D. Harrell.

The Time: June 10, 1971 — 8:00 P.M.

There is much preparation and intense excitement before the final procession.

Joey Kannan, president of the class, gives the welcoming address.

Wendell institutes a final bow to Mrs. Thorpe as his "career" at F.H.S. ends.

A dignified group of seniors wait patiently to be presented their diplomas.

Valedictorian — David Brannon Pittman.

Speaker — Dr. Warren Matthews.

Salutatorian — Jacqueline Dawn Hagan.

Mr. Davis gives out the diplomas.

Mr. Galloway awards school and community scholarships to lucky graduates.

The Place: YMCA Athletic Field

The Event: Graduation!

Thus a stepping stone . . .

For some, their time has come before.

For others, their time will come,

but for all . . .

The Time — It Is Today

Sunrise, Sunset

What you're born with is what you get

Let your fear just pass away, then your love will fill your days

I know . . .

. . . The time it is today, and we must find our way

My heart it clearly states, the answer's not in hate

I once believed that love was but a dream

But now I know that love's a flowing stream

They're lying, killing, they're pushing their rules

They tell me the prophets all were just fools

But I know different and I won't be used

It's they that are lost, it's they are confused

Sunrise, Sunset

What you're born with is what you get

All your world is all your fears

They don't change, but pass in years

I know

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Surry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. (And from the balcony, you can watch them assemble the real thing.) Open 10 AM to 4 PM Monday through Saturday and 1 PM to 6 PM on Sunday. For tour information call 771-3194 in Richmond.

Most For Your Money

The Annual Staff would like to extend its special thanks to Eric Dentler, photographer; Mr. Angus Hines; and the TIDEWATER NEWS for their support and aid. We assure you that without their help our task would have been immensely harder.

Margaret,
 year we'll be big tough seniors!! just think I won't have any more of Vess-pa's (although you will). Try to behave at N.C. state this summer and have a good time. I'll see you next year because this summer you'll be at college. Keep that nice personality and you'll go far.

Margaret,

It really has been fun this year - at the beach, and in Vess-pa's class (that was un-fun). You really are a great girl. Thanks for helping me in French and for doing my lay-outs.

See you this summer
 (when you're not at school)

Tan

Margaret,

This year sure went fast & next year will probably go even faster. Good luck always and be good to the men.

Whit

Margaret,
 We will never forget Thorpe's class, will we? Hope we are more lucky next year.
 Hope you have a fun summer.
 Rob Goulet

Autographs

Margaret,

I have enjoyed eating lunch with you this year. I don't know what to say so I won't say anything.

David Clark

Margaret,
I wish you the best of everything. I am hoping that I have helped you by some way. Keep the memory of me on P. H. Walker

Margaret,
We really had a bad time in English this year, didn't we? I sure hope I don't get that _____ next year! If I do, I'm going to cry a lot! Don't forget the trip to UPI. I don't think I will! Have fun this summer and I hope to see you around.

Marvin

Margaret,
Be good this summer. I hear you're really a swinger. You'd better behave yourself if it's at all possible.
I hope you have a good time at summer school. I'll see ya! Ben!

Love,
Glen

Margaret,
I am glad to have had you in several of my classes this year. Physics & Tr 16 were really exciting, weren't they?
Good luck as a Senior.
Keep up those good grades!
L. H. L.

Autographs

Margaret,
 You've really been something else this year! I've enjoyed having the same class with you I know you're really looking forward to going to N.C. next week. Have a fabulous time.

Love ya,

Margaret

Even though you are too smart to communicate with me, I will try to say the with all my heart...

Good luck next year

Margaret -
 I've enjoyed sitting by you at lunch - even though you are above my low mental capacity! Thanks for being a great friend -
 Love,
 Connie Tankford

Margaret,
 Thanks for all the rides and if you ever trust my driving I will tote ya all over N.C. State.
 Luckat Ann Waring

Margaret,

Love that typing class, huh? Especially the jotting which neither of us ever did. I hope you have a great time at summer school; I'm planning to, so we'll have to really make the best of it in every way. Don't be too bad, though.

Love ya,
Pat

Margaret,

Good luck next year - I hope it's as "colorful" as this one. It was great in Physics.

D. J. and Jensen

Margaret,

It's been fun trying to beat Mrs. Thorpe, joking with Mr. Wallace, and sleeping with Mrs.
Beale. Hope you have fun taking these early exams. I know I won't.
See you this summer.
Have fun
Larry

Margaret,

This has really been a good year.
Physics class was something else.
Just think next year we can do it all over again!

Good luck always!
Be good and
have fun.

Remember to send me a card from North Carolina.

Love ya,
Jerry

Margaret,
Have fun this summer and don't forget choir
(I really wasn't it?) Out In year, really turned out well, didn't I
Be good and good Luck in your Senior year
Susan

Margaret,
It's been a great year in which the seniors kept think that well the summer and year. ~~Take~~ Take it easy the summer and I hope I'll see you at the beach next year
Best wishes always from one of the boys
Graydon

Margaret,
Had a great time at,
Nags Head this year didn't we. Rained all year I think. Good luck next year and have a great summer
See ya,
Mickey R.

Margaret,
We had lots of fun at U.P.I. I hope we can go again next year but we'll probably have to have papers.
Lots of love,
Lynn
